

Meditation Retreat Centre & The Tana Learning Institute (Shedra) (South India)

May the sound of the great drum of the Dharma

Eliminate the suffering of all sentient beings,

May the Dharma be proclaimed

Through a million Kalpas

Thank you for your kind donation. It will go a long way toward the successful completion of the Project, and will be instrumental in the development of the Buddha's Dispensation.

MEDITATION RETREAT CENTRE & THE TANA LEARNING INSTITUTE (SHEDRA)

THE PURPOSE

GUIDED by the Great Lineage Masters and the leadership of Tulku Pema Rinpoche, the Abbot of Tana Monastery, South India, there is an urgent need before the fast approaching DARK ERA to construct the MEDITATION RETREAT CENTRE for permanent retreatants to train in the 3 years, 3 months, 3 days permanent retreat and the SHEDRA for the training of both the monastic and institute monks and lay disciples. The Shedra will cater for the profound Buddhist teachings, philosophy, medicine, lineage rituals and much more.

THE PROJECT

The Meditation Retreat Centre is separate from the Shedra but both will be constructed within the Monastery's 6 acres of vast grounds which were donated by the Indian Government at the request of the HH Dalai Lama 30 years ago.

The Meditation Retreat Centre will consist of:

- A large shrine room
- 20 other rooms
- Kitchen and Dining room
- Toilet facilities

The Shedra will be a 3-storey building consisting of:

- Shrine room
- Classrooms
- Library
- Office
- Training Halls
- 50 other rooms
- Kitchen and dining room
- Toilet facilities

The estimated cost of construction will be in the region of USD 530,000. Construction of the Meditation Retreat Centre will be a priority and would commence as soon as adequate funds are received.

Your kind support is very much appreciated.
